

70 High Street SHEFFIELD TAS

3 1 2

Production on this gem started in the early 1920's and was to be a war service home for Lt Col Martyn Clerke.

The home was largely untouched until the current owners purchased it in 2003 and this is where

Age, Heritage and a modern elegance began to be meshed together to create what you see before us today.

As you approach this home you are greeted by the beautiful silver birches, double lock up garage with a separate workshop area measuring an ample 7 x 4 m approx in size.

The home has been fully rewired and includes an internal safety switch box. A new Colourbond roof and southern facing aluminium windows have been installed with care to ensure that they are in keeping with the "period" of property.
