

64 Watkinson Street DEVONPORT TAS

3 3 1

This home could well be the Kinder Surprise of homes. The exterior is neat but unassuming, but inside is a surprise for the whole family. This substantially renovated property boasts a feature set to rival brand new homes, but in a location and price range which should be quite appealing. Essentially the home comprises three bedrooms (including 2 ensuites), plus a study, an excellent kitchen with heaps of storage and preparation area, two living areas and internal access from the garage. Outside the secure yard includes plenty of entertaining space, with decks and under cover areas and more garden storage. The location is superb with easy access to schools and shops and the low maintenance exterior is ideal for family life. Call today this will surprise you.
